

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title : Social Worker

Organisation : Muslim Missionary Society Singapore, Jamiyah Singapore

Scope of Work:

The role of Social worker is responsible for providing counselling support to clients and their families in attaining resources that fits their needs including the provision of financial assistance when required. To be committed in building and sustain a collaborative working relationship with team members and key social service partners to deliver social service outcomes. Social worker has to identify community changes and opportunities such as legislation, regulations and programmes that affect residents' care and quality of life.

Summary of Responsibilities / Duties:

- Direct practice which include casework, counselling and therapeutic group work to patients and family members.
- Organize case conferences to pursue holistic care for patients
- Participate in practice research and development of clinical social work.
- Conduct psychosocial and financial assessment of the patient/family and recommend appropriate interventions to support holistic patient management.
- Conduct field visits, networking with government, community, social agencies or individuals to mobilize social resources to meet patient's needs.

Education and Experience:

- Degree in Counselling / Social Work or other relevant qualification
- Relevant working experience in Social Work
- Good presentation and report writing skills
- Good interpersonal skills, with the ability to relate well to people of all levels
- Enthusiastic, committed and enjoy working as a team in a fast-paced and innovative environment
- Proficient in English and Malay languages

Remuneration:

- Negotiable

If Interested kindly contact :

FAREENA MOHD JAFFAR (Ms) | Senior HR Executive | Human Resource Department

Jamiyah Singapore – No. 31 Lorong 12 Geylang, Singapore 399006

Tel: +65 6743 1211 (ext: 144) / +65 81687967

Fax: +65 6745 0610 • Email: hr-1@jamiyah.org.sg

